

CONTRACTORS WILL SOON BEGIN WORK

PAVING EAST FELLOWS STREET —WILL COMPLETE JOB BEFORE
ASSEMBLY OPENS

SHOULD PROVIDE FOR UTILITIES

Property Owners Should Do This,
Thus Preventing Pavement Torn Up After Completed

Clubb & Hughes, the Rockford contractors who were awarded the contract for paving East Fellows street, announced yesterday that they will commence work on the street early next week, as an effort will be made to get the street done as quickly as possible because of the Rock River Assembly.

With the announcement that work will be started on this street the city officials request that all property owners make arrangements to have water, sewer and gas brought to the curb lines where such utilities are not already installed. To do so will make it unnecessary to tear up the street, after the pavement has been constructed.

In Repairing Pavements.

Appropos the repairing of asphalt-bound pavements, which was discussed at length and spiritedly by the city council at Wednesday afternoon's meeting, Mr. McGuirk, a representative of the Standard Asphalt & Rubber Co., manufacturers of Sarco, the asphalt used in the Dixon pavements, stated to a Telegraph representative Wednesday afternoon that in many cities the authorities have arranged with contractors to do all pavement repairing and that these contractors are under bond to keep their repair work in good condition, even after several years. The utilities companies or plumbers for whom the work is done are charged with the city officials.

Concrete Arches.

Mr. McGuirk also stated that other cities compel the construction of a concrete arch, for the foundation of all repairs under asphalt-bound brick pavements, especially where the pavements are built on macadam foundations as they are in Dixon. He said that in these cases the concrete is dove-tailed into the unbroken surface of the macadam.

And in the meantime, the city officials of Dixon are scheming some way to provide for completely satisfactory work in such cases.

Mrs. John Byers and daughter, Helen, visited relatives in Sterling today.

While "cleaning house" yesterday O. F. Gylleck came upon an old railway guide of the United States, published in 1851. The map shows but few railroads in the country, and is interesting locally in that Dixon is the only present city on the Northwestern between Chicago and the Mississippi shown. Oregon City, Rockford and Lyndon are the only other places shown in this vicinity.

MARGARET STAHL COMING TO ASSEMBLY

TALENTED WOMAN TO BE ONE OF THE STAR ATTRACTIONS
THIS SEASON

On August 1, Margaret Stahl will put on, "The Dawn of a Tomorrow" at the Rock River Assembly. Miss Stahl comes here in the role of Interpreter of Plays. The very general opinion of critics is that, in this sphere, she has attained a pre-eminent place among women, even as Leland T. Powers has, for many years, ranked the first among men. Of all the women on the Lyceum platform today, there is probably one more regarded as a model for other Readers than Margaret Stahl, for she has done more by her example and influence than any other to bring the art of Portrayalist out of the region of declamation and bombast and into the sphere of reality. Simple, unaffected and natural, her art is completely sincere, close to life and character, utterly free from the chromo qualities that make the declaimer odious to the intelligent listener.

COL. HARVEY GREETED BULL MOOSE LEADER

VERY PRETTY LETTER TO ROOSEVELT
BY EDITOR OF NORTH AMERICAN REVIEW.

ASKS HIM HIS INTENTIONS

Refers in Significant Manner to Recent Republican Gains and Democratic Losses.

The following political article appeared in the Sunday Chicago Herald:

New York, June 27.—By special arrangement the Chicago Herald is enabled to present herewith an article by Colonel George Harvey which will appear in the North American Review for July, in which the "Exploring Colonel" welcomes the "Exploring Colonel" back into the political arena.

"There stood a man of Macedonia, and prayed him, saying 'Come over into Macedonia, and help us.'"

"Welcome, sir, to our country! Grateful as we were for the momentary distraction afforded by your passing call, our craving is for a prolonged visit, such as distant relatives are prone to make upon occasion. Unlike their arrivals, however, yours is most opportune. We need you—all of us.

"You have heard the call of the Moose. Listen, and you shall hear the braying of the donkey. Even the elephant trumpets with unbecoming exultation of spirit. And the tired—the very tired—business man! From the depths of his dejection he stretches forth his arm to grasp the hand that once did smite him sorely. Wilson's tenaciousness is beginning to weary us. We are sick of Bryan. We want our colonel.

Now what are you going to do—and say—to cheer us up? When you returned from the Undoubted river you appeared not, of course, beaten to a frazzle, but somewhat worn and frayed. Clearly, the propounding of pertinent queries at that time would have been inconsiderate at the least, perhaps, indeed unduly harassing, but now you have lost your resemblance of Job, have recovered from the inevitable effects of monkey steaks and mosquito bites, have discarded the unwonted cane, and have regained the determined vivacity which for so long constituted your distinctive personal charm and your chief political asset. The wedding, too, we read, was both joyous and noteworthy, a pleasant occasion having been reported by all; and the royal geographers listened calmly to your tempestuous discourse upon the hills and dales and unsuspected running brooks or far-off lands.

"Assuming, then, that the tradition at fiddle is not more fit than your own variegated self, we no longer hesitate to exercise the parental prerogative and to ask you plainly, what are your intentions? Honorable, no doubt; but 'whit way,' as the Scots inquire, does your fancy point? Toward the old love, so true and yet so brusquely jilted, or to the new affinity who in your absence has pined away to the merest shadow of her former robustness? Or would you turn polygamist and take them both? Speak, our colonel, and tell us. The President, to say nothing, for once, of the Secretary of State, would like to know. And so, indeed, would all of us.

"Perhaps you have not decided. Seemingly, at any rate, you had not when you sailed away. The widely heralded bugle call, which you can only left behind for publication on Monday morning, when overshadowing news was scarce, was hardly a blat.

"That times are psychologically somewhat trying is reluctantly admitted even in Washington, where disagreeable facts percolate slowly; necessarily retrenchment in personal expenditures has followed inevitably and perhaps advantageously; but there is no overcrowding of saloons as yet, despite the quite common dearth of employment in manufacturing communities. True, regardless of the ebullient Mr. Redfield's insistence to the contrary; the cost of living has not been reduced; but would it have diminished under our colonel's guidance? Did it: lowering the tariff rates may not reduce costs materially, even after a toll trial, but it is the only remedy so far suggested, and it cannot yet be fairly pronounced a failure. You thought so yourself, our colonel, once upon a time, but when the day came to act you hurriedly forsook the fox and

HAS NARROW ESCAPE FROM DROWNING

DAUGHTER OF ANGLIER WILSON FALLS INTO RIVER FROM ESPY'S LAUNCH

The little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Anglier Wilson had a narrow escape from drowning yesterday, when she fell from the Espy launch which was conveying her mother and some other ladies and children up the river. Fortunately the scene of the little girl's escape was near a landing at one of the cottages up stream, and Mr. Espy was able to grasp the child and pull her from the stream before any of the water entered her lungs.

The little girl, together with other children, was standing near the prow of the launch, while the landing was being made, and in some manner she lost her balance and fell into the water, sinking below its surface. Mr. Espy seeing her fall rushed to the front of the boat and reaching into the stream caught hold of her and pulled her out.

WILSON ALARMED AT BUSINESS CONDITIONS

TALKS WITH MORGAN

CONFERENCE WITH MORGAN IS SURPRISE TO PRESIDENT'S OBSERVERS.

WILL CONFER WITH FORD

FRIENDS OF WILSON DECLARE HE APPROACHES SUBJECT OF CONDITIONS WITH OPEN MIND.

(Associated Press.)

Washington, D. C., July 2.—J. P. Morgan had an engagement at the White House today to discuss the general business conditions of the country and was the first of the informal conferences President Wilson plans to have with the industrial and financial leaders. It is reported that Morgan requested an engagement, and another version is that Morgan was invited through two personal friends, to give his views. Next week the president will have an informal conference with Henry Ford, the Detroit manufacturer. Morgan's engagement was more or less a surprise to those observers of the president's course since he entered the White House, and pointed out that Wilson declared he would not ask the captains of big business for any advice on legislation affecting them as many other presidents have done.

By this series of informal conferences Wilson's friends declare that it shows the president is approaching the subject of business conditions with an open mind and stands willing to hear views from big business men first and then outline his own views in return.

Next Wednesday the president will hold an important conference with a delegation representing the Chicago Association of Commerce.

This is a great honor bestowed upon two very bright and clever Dixon young women, and their many friends extend congratulations.

Henning, former assistant cashier of the Farmers' bank of Schaumburg, Ill., indicted on a charge of embezzling $42,000, and recently released in Judge McKinley's court on a technicality, was reindicted by the grand jury and immediately arrested in St. Paul. The state's attorney's office learned that Henning had fled to St. Paul and wired the police of that city to hold him.

Information was received by Francis Hinckley, assistant state's attorney, that Henning has appealed to the governor of Minnesota and is fighting extradition in every way possible.

The new indictment returned against the former assistant cashier of Schaumburg is on a charge of embezzling $2,800. The charge was brought by Henry Hartman of Schaumburg, who claims that he gave Henning a note for collection and that the money was misappropriated by the banker.

PROSPERITY ASSURED SAYS J. V. FARWELL

Big Crop Yield Will Banish Depression by Fall.

Chicago, July 2.—"The biggest crops of all kinds for years past are reported by our traveling men," said John V. Farwell, head of the John V. Farwell company, one of the largest dry goods wholesalers in the west and a recognized authority on economics.

"The railroads have arranged to handle the produce as fast as it is delivered," Farwell continued. "Our markets are waiting to receive the shipments and the bankers are anxious to get their reserve cash into circulation."

"With these potential factors at work, the country cannot dodge prosperity if it tries. The depression of the summer has been due to lack of confidence on the part of capital. Much money went into hiding to await developments. However, whatever apprehension was felt has been set at rest by the bumper crops."

"The next move is distribution of products and money so that prosperity will be brought to every individual. That such prosperity will come within a short while is reasonably certain."

COL. HARVEY GREET'S BULL MOOSE LEADER

ashed madly off at full cry in pursuit of a rabbit.

"What, moreover, said the Progressive platform?

We demand tariff revision because the present tariff is unjust to the people of the United States. Fair dealing toward the people requires an immediate downward revision of these schedules wherein duties are shown to be unjust or excessive.

"There is no room for argument here, our colonel. Democratic action conformed precisely to the Progressive pledge. If the one was taken in error, the other was made in fault. The grave defect in the new tariff lists, not in costs but in the loss in revenue ensuing from the president's ill-judged insistence upon removing the tax upon sugar.

"Not the slightest progress," you declare, "has been made in solving the trust question." We frankly concede grave misgivings as to whether the administration measures passed by the House of Representatives tend to clarification or confusion of existing law, but how idle it is to assert in the face of these facts that nothing has been done! Too much and too hurriedly, we should say.

"The truth is that the trust problem was solved nearly a quarter of a century ago, when the Sherman act was passed. Recent experience has demonstrated beyond question the efficacy and adaptability of that law. The trouble arose from the refusal or failure of previous administrations to enforce it.

"Under the circumstances, our colonel, might it not be the part of you newly acquired prudence to avoid the pointed discussion of the 'trust question' which is bound to ensue from criticism of President Wilson's honest endeavors, however injudiciously directed, to re-establish competition.

"What you might do and what we wish the President would do is this: Urge the enactment of laws which would enable American manufacturers to compete with their rivals in foreign markets upon an even basis. Every other nation encourages combination for that purpose, and there is every reason why we should and no reason why we should not do likewise.

"After declaring somewhat reservedly your intention to speak for your valiant lieutenants from Maine to California, you say:

But I believe that this fall my chief duty lies right here in the state of New York. I doubt whether there is a state in the Union that shows more conclusively than this state the dreadful evil of the two-boss system in political life. The people of this state, the honest people, the good citizens who wish clean and efficient government, no matter what their party affiliations may be, are growing bitterly indignant with a system which provides for the seizure of the Murphy and Barnes machines in the government of this state. Under such rules it is absolutely impossible to get decent and effective government. * * * I believe the time has come to clean house in New York. And I believe that all right-minded people ought to act together, without regard to their ordinary party differences, in a determined effort to accomplish this task and to destroy the malign and baleful influence of both the Barnes machine and the Murphy machine in this state.

"This has the old-time ring. The blending of redoubtability and astuteness, too, is perfect. It is quite safe to denounce Murphy and Barnes; they have no friends. The reference to 'all right-minded people' is capital also. But has anybody told you that, while you were moving mountains and shifting the courses of streams, the New York legislature passed a direct primary bill which confers upon the voters the power to nominate candidates for all state offices?

"You have no longer to advocate this great Progressive principle; it has been adopted. The rule of the people is established. Murphy and Barnes can cast but one vote each out of a total of more than a million. The wrong-minded bosses are down and out; the right-minded rank and file are in the saddle. So you perceive, our colonel, that, mayhap to your regret, there is nothing further along this line to talk about.

"In some respects, indeed, as you must admit, the President has outprogressed the Progressives, most notably, perhaps, in sacrificing his declared convictions to the demands of organized labor. You would not have done that. In fact, you refused to do it in a positive declaration that will stand everlastingly to your credit. The one conspicuous policy which the President has not appropriated from your collection is the recall of judges and judicial decisions. But we observe, our colonel, that you yourself seem to have shelved that awe-inspiring principle for the time being. In any case, you did not advert to it once during your stay with us. We wonder why. Can it be possible that you heard a loud whisper from Republican headquarters to the effect that, of all our notions, this is the one that definitely bars the way to complete reconciliation?

"We have already directed your attention to the obvious pining away of your political affinity. So, doubtless, did the more valiant of your lieutenants during your many conferences. But did they indicate the full extent of that decline?

"They tell you that only 48,253 of the 414,584 Pennsylvanians who voted for you participated in the recent Progressive primaries, while simultaneously the Democrats lost 160,000 and the Republicans actually gained 55,000 and polled 80,000 more than both combined; that recent by-elections of congressmen resulted as follows: In Iowa, Republican gain 2000, Democratic loss 7,000; Progressive loss 10,000; in New Jersey, Republican gain 4,000, Democratic loss 4,000; Progressive loss 4,000; in Maine, Republican gain 8,000, Democratic loss 3,500, Progressive loss 6,800; in Massachusetts, Republican loss 1,900, Democratic loss 6,000, Progressive loss 5,500; in West Virginia, Republican loss 1,700, Democratic loss 9,000, Progressive loss 9,500; that in New York the Progressive enrollment has dwindled to a beggarly 110,000, as against 390,000 votes cast for you in 1912; that in California the Republican enrollment exceeds that of either Democrats or Progressives by more than 100,000; that South Dakota, which gave you 10,000 majority, has recently elected a standpat Republican United States senator by 9,000; that the recent state election in Arkansas showed Republican loss 8,000, Democratic loss 15,000, Progressive loss 13,000; that in the Maryland senatorial election the Republican vote increased 20,000 and the Progressive vote decreased 50,000; that in Schuylers County, Pennsylvania, the Republican enrollment increased 10,000 and the Progressive enrollment decreased 9,000; that in Allegheny County, where Taft received only 24,000, the Republican enrollment now is 127,000; that Omaha, Neb., shows Republican gain of 4,000; Democratic loss 4,000; Progressive loss 5,600; that the Republicans swept St. Louis at the spring election and carried the leading Progressive district in Chicago, and, finally, that few, if any, Progressives have been elected to the legislatures of states which gave you the strongest support?

"What is the true portent of these amazing Republican revivals accompanied invariably by corresponding Democratic reversals and Progressive recessions to the vanishing point? Even the President seems at last to perceive the writing on the wall if, as reported, he gave as a reason for forcing so many Democratic measures at this session his desire to clear the way for non-partisan legislative work thereafter.

"But we are not discussing the democratic predicament. It is yours and your party's that is under consideration. And here we direct your attention to a most significant change in sentiment. Three months ago, our colonel, you were complete master of the situation. Republicans without number who had execrated your name, especially in 1912, had become so thoroughly dissatisfied with the Wilson administration that they stood ready to accept even you, chiefly, no doubt, as the lesser of two evils, but not unwittingly at that.

"Not so now! The protracted business depression has borne so heavily upon the Democratic party in public estimation that these Republicans no longer feel that they need you. The wisest and shrewdest of them are convinced that the great mass of voters, for one reason or another, but chiefly because of their inability to prosper, have become so embittered that they wait only an opportunity to repudiate the party in power, but all in the guise of governmental interference and governmental control regarded as radicalism that the party stands for.

"And this antipathy is reckoned to comprehend you, our colonel, and your policies no less than the President and his. It is a plague of both your houses."

"If, as you have announced, you shall go into Pennsylvania and make attacks upon the administration the basis of your campaigning, and if the President, as he has announced, shall also take the stump in Pennsylvania for the purpose of repelling your assaults, Senator Penrose will be elected by an overwhelming majority. You, the master politician of your day, can hardly fail to recognize this certainty. The President may not. With all his subconscious astuteness, Mr. Wilson is likely to mistake his real adversary.

"Meanwhile, in resolving your own ticklish problem, consideration must, of course, be given to the unescapable facts that the coming contest will lie between the two old parties; that the Progressives no longer hold the balance of power; that telling assaults by you upon the administration will serve only to make more certain and easy the election of Republican candidates.

"That is the true situation. Now again we ask: What, our colonel, are you going to do?

"Meanwhile, as you may have heard, the vigilant Mr. Hearst proffers Grecian favor and hints at co-operation somewhat after the manner of Caranza. If Mr. Roosevelt, he says, shall conscientiously support such men and such policies (as suit Mr. Hearst) he will secure support from many unexpected quarters, from many Democrats who no longer find Jeffersonian Democracy or any spirit of patriotic loyalty or any hope of national prosperity in the Democratic party. This has a pleasing sound, but observe, our colonel, that the first chief of the Independence League will consent to no armistice and demands, as a sine qua non of mediation, the head of Ethu Root and repudiation of Henry Cabot Lodge. Can the demands of this rigorous taskmaster be met? We fear not. Consider for a moment the case of Mr. Hearst's unceasing vilification of Mr. Root. It is the speech which he delivered in Syracuse accusing Mr. Hearst of instigating the assassination of President McKinley. But it was not Mr. Root's declaration; it was yours, made with the full knowledge and authority of yourself, the President, by a member of your cabinet speaking at your request and by your direction. You, the instigator, escaped for the simple reason that Mr. Hearst regarded your representative as the more vulnerable. That you should now join hands with the man whom you denounced measurably responsible for assassination against a secretary who only did your bidding is to our mind unthinkable.

"Word comes from Spain that you are prepared to approve of fusion of Progressives and Progressive Republicans—why not also Progressive Democrats?—and then, having constituted yourself a primary, you would designate Mr. Whitman for governor and Mr. Straus for senator? Don't do that. They might win, and if they should the Republican ticket in 1916 would be most probably Borah and Whitman—a combination quite too formidable for pleasing contemplation by avid Democrats. No, no, our colonel; run yourself! Give the disconsolate Democrats at least a fighting chance!

"We beg of you, too, as a sportsman, to nominate a Progressive candidate for Congress in every district. Think how many more of your policies may be realized if the Democrats shall have two additional years in which to strive, let us say, as one!

"Study the significant record of recent elections presented above, and read with care the following statement of an unhappy political plight from the sharp-eyed Argonaut of California:

"Much, of course, will depend upon Mr. Roosevelt himself. His gifts are great. His opportunity is exceptional. The Democratic administration has failed at vital points. It is not solving the great issues with respect to which its assurances were positive. It is in many ways hurting the prosperity of the country. It is disturbing and complicating our foreign relations. It has brought us to the verge of an unnecessary and foolish war, and is likely to lead us still further. It is failing at the point of administrative competence. In brief, it is disappointing the country—it tends to nothing less than to deepen the universal distrust of Democratic capacity for efficient and prosperous maintenance of all the varied interests dependent upon the intelligence, the consistency, and the force of governmental policy. It would be idle to deny that all this makes a situation curiously suitable to Mr. Roosevelt's peculiar genius.

JOHNNY EVERS

You've not forgot by any chance that poem "from Tinker to Evers to Chance"—those famous double plays. Well, Johnny was the pivot man that steered the good ol' "get two" plan in those champion days. John used to shoot the pill across to Chance, the Peerless Leader boss. Now Johnny's boss himself. He's captaining George Stallings' Braves. They're way below like galley slaves, down on the bottom shelf.

But Stallings thinks that John's O. K. and Johnny's own bunch runs that way, he doesn't worry 'tall. He's sure the Braves'll start to win an' never stop when they begin to work that inside ball. For know ye, bugs, that Johnny's pet; that inside ball's his one best bet to land the big-end scores. He's filled with is from lid to kicks, he eats an' sleeps these baseball tricks, they ooze out from his pores.

He'll find, though, it takes more than brains to cover losses up with gains—to cop the runs, the wins. There's nothing like the lusty clout to help this inside baseball out an' put it on its pins. If I was John I'd play this hunch—I'd save the inside stuff for lunch, cut down the brainy tricks. Then make 'em hit the ball a mile, play ol' time baseball for a while, then let the two kinds mix.

TO HAVE PRETTY HAIR.

If your hair is not as soft and pretty, or as fresh and full as that of some friend, do as she does—give it daily attention, just the same care you would a plant to make it healthy and beautiful. Luxuriant hair—soft, fluffy, thick and lustrous—is really a matter of care. If it is too thin, make it grow. If it is too dry and brittle, soften it up—lubricate it. If you have dandruff it is because the scalp is too dry and flakes off.
Parsian Sage, an inexpensive tonic, which you can get from any druggist, or from Rowland Brothers, is just what you need—it softens the scalp, nourishes the hair roots, immediately removes dandruff, and makes the hair fluffy, lustrous and abundant. Parsian Sage takes away the dryness, stops itching head, makes the hair twice as abundant and beautifies it until it is soft and lustrous.

By the use of this helpful tonic any woman can easily make her hair fluffy, soft and pretty.

hills for about 33 miles in a north-phantly: "Now I know vermicelli is alive, else how could it grow into macaroni?"

"SEEK THE INSECT."

We know that one kind of mosquito carries malaria and another kind yellow fever, says an exchange. We have learned that the house fly transmits typhoid and the rat flea the bubonic plague. The body louse, it has recently been discovered, is the intermediate host of the typhus fever germ. The tsetse fly in Africa is the guilty party in transmitting the sleeping sickness. Indeed, the search for insect-carriers is now the favorite quest of scientific medicine. Whenever the bacteriologist faces a difficult problem in medicine he always begins to look about for some neighboring insect. Scarcely a diminutive form of life is now above suspicion. That undignified and rather vulgar beast whose popular name is bedbug is now subject to constant scrutiny. There are several diseases that it may play a part in perpetuating. In the old-fashioned mystery the usual recommendation was "seek the woman." In the modern medical detective story the usual saying is: Seek the insect.

TRANSPOSED NUMBERS.

We've got a good joke on ourselves, or maybe it's on the other fellow. The day of the Moran-Johnson prize fight in Paris, the Telegraph, in announcing that the Associated Press dispatches to this paper would inform our people of the progress and outcome of the battle, told what telephone number those interested might call to get the returns. An inspired compositor got the numbers twisted, and the number of a private residence, occupied fortunately by good natured people and friends of ours, was given. Presently their telephone bell commenced to ring and imagine the consternation created in the mind of the lady of the house when masculine voices put in the query, "How about the fight?"

MORE GRAPE JUICE DIPLOMACY.

Another reason is now brought up why we should not pay Colombia that fool $25,000,000 sop to its honor. The neighboring countries, Ecuador, Venezuela and Panama, complain that if Uncle Sam presents Colombia with $25,000,000 that country will get so cocky and stuck-up that it will be impossible to remain on the same hemisphere with her.

SPREAD IT OUT A LITTLE.

Did you ever see such a stubborn bunch as those city commissioners are about that garbage proposition? They eat, drink and sleep brick pavements, and new sewers are their religion. They can't think of anything else under the sun. Brick pavements are all fine and dandy, but many of the back yards along the boulevards would not compare favorably with the front. It is like wearing a false bosom to a shirt. Why not dress up all around? This Queen Ann front and Mary Ann back idea won't do.

OUR COMMITTEES.

Fra Elbertus says: "When a gentleman was asked what he drank he countered with the question: 'Is this an invitation or an investigation?'" Certainly the question was needless. Beyond a doubt it was an investigation. This country is suffering from an eczema of investigations. As the king in his cabinet once butted into the private affairs of every citizen, summoning individuals before the court on every possible pretense and occasion, so has the government of the United States trespassed on the preserve of darkest Russia and Spain in the time of Torquemada. Congress has appointed 69 committees during the last year to investigate this, that and the other.

The Rockford Register Gazette, in an editorial comment, remarks that "The Honorable Bill Brinton of Dixon is too smart to allow the Dunne-Lewis combination to tempt him into the Senatorial scrap. Mr. Brinton has money and he doesn't intend to get separated from it in this foolish sort of a way."

Well may the sailors on Uncle Sam's warships now sigh and repeat, "Water, water, everywhere, but not a drop to drink," since Secretary of the Navy Daniels chopped grog from the navy menu.

Abe Martin sagely remarks that "You kin fool part o' th' people all th' time and all th' people part o' th' time—but not on a last year's straw hat."

The Harvest Hand

BY WALT MASON

Triumphantly the toiler roared, "I get three bones a day and board! That's going some, eh, what?" And on he labored, brave and strong; the work was hard, the hours were long, the day was passing hot. I sat at ease beneath a tree—that sort of thing appeals to me—and watched him as he toiled; the sweat rolled down him in a stream, and I could see his garments steam, his face and hands were broiled. He chuckled as he toiled away, "They're paying me three bones a day, with board and washing, and summer in the sun, for that, the long day through! And I, who earn three iron men with sundry scratches of a pen, felt sorry for the jay; but, as I watched his stalwart form, the pity that was growing warm within me, blew away. For he was getting more than wealth—keen appetite and rugged health and blessings such as those; and when the day of toil was through, no doubt the stalwart worker knew a weary child's repose!"

HENRY CLAY PIERCE

Oil Man Said to Have Worked for the Mediation Failure.

Revelations made by the publication of certain letters written by Henry Clay Pierce and others who have figured prominently in the Mexico revolution have aroused much interest in this country. The letters show the peculiar and highly significant activities of the American end of the revolutionary propaganda. It is claimed that these men sought to make mediation a failure. Mr. Pierce is wealthy, and his oil holdings in Mexico are worth millions.

Dr. Bokhoff and Owens were called to Compton today to perform a delicate operation at the hospital.

ENVOYS FAIL IN SOLVING MEXICO

Work Is Formally Brought to Close with Luncheon.

ENVOYS TAKE OPTIMISTIC VIEW

Ambassador Da Gama of Brazil in Speech Says He and His Colleagues Have Never Disagreed—Failure to Bring Mexican Faction Together—All Delegates Present.

Niagara Falls, Ont., July 2.—The three South American diplomats who undertook two and a half months ago to seek a solution to the Mexican problem have brought their work to an end without having found the solution. The closing of the mediation conferences was marked by a formal luncheon given by the mediators to the newspaper correspondents who have attended the proceedings. All the members of the American and Mexican delegations were present.

Formal Statement by Da Gama. The formal statement by which Ambassador Da Gama of Brazil and Ministers Naon and Suarez of Argentina and Chile virtually admitted that they had abandoned hope took the form of a speech by the Brazilian envoy. After declaring that he and his colleagues had never disagreed, and that the mediation board was "probably the most united political body ever constituted in the world," Senor Da Gama announced that the international side of the conflict had been settled, thanks to the mediators and that "so far, we averted a war."

Optimism Not Shared. The optimism expressed by the ambassador of Brazil and his two colleagues does not appear, however, to be felt by anyone else connected with the mediation conference. The American delegates are not more pleased than the Mexicans at the sudden decision of the mediators to abandon their efforts in favor of peace in Mexico. It is known here that the Washington government was quite willing to keep its representatives here until a solution had been found and both Justice Lamar and Frederick W. Lohmann, the American delegates, were prepared to continue their work until every vestige of hope had been lost.

No Importance Whatsoever is given here to the statement made by the South American envoy that this interruption of the proceedings is merely a recess. As a matter of fact, the reason why the mediators postponed until today their departure, after that they would have left yesterday, is that the Mexican delegates here insisted that action be taken to declare the conference closed. To this end and at the specific request of the Mexican envoys, official minutes of the proceedings were prepared yesterday in English and Spanish and signed by the three mediators and all the delegates. Another copy of these minutes is being prepared in Portuguese for the Brazilian government and it will be signed today.

Identify Lightning Victims. Dodge City, Kan., July 2.—Everett Verbeck of South Holland, Ill., and Arthur Vogel of St. Louis were the names of the two young men killed by lightning in a wheat field near Spearville, according to the finding of a coroner's jury. Each of the youths was twenty years old.

ILLINOIS BUILDING STARTED

Ground Is Broken and Program Carried Out at San Francisco.

San Francisco, Cal., July 2.—Ground was broken for the Illinois state building at the Panama-Pacific exposition with a patriotic program conducted by members of the special commission in charge and the San Francisco branch of the Illinois Society of California.

Guy Cramer, resident member of the commission, turned the first spade full of earth and construction was declared formally begun at 3:30 o'clock in the afternoon. Mrs. L. E. Rockwell of Quincy, Ill., who is eighty-three years old, raised the state flag over the site, Chief Justice Henry A. Melvin of the supreme court of California, formerly a resident of Illinois; Dr. Fred A. Bliss, president of the San Francisco Illinois society, and Mrs. Sadie Thompson, president of the Oakland branch of the society, spoke. Mrs. Olive Timmons sang "Illinois."

HOW THEY LINE UP IN STATE POLITICS

POLO PAPER REVIEWS POLITICAL SITUATION AT HOME AND ABROAD.

Our neighbor, the Tri-County Press of Polo, has the following summary of the political aspect in this state and district with some sidelights on the situation in Ogle county as Editor Hemingway sees it.

The "political pot" is beginning to boil. In fact the candidates are becoming so thick that it will soon be necessary for the average voter to have a card index of the offices to be filled and the candidates who are offering their services, if he is to be kept at all well informed.

Senator Sherman has announced himself a candidate for re-nomination on the republican ticket, and will begin an active campaign as soon as he can leave his duties at Washington.

Charles C. Countryman has been prosecuting his legonobile and hand organ campaign for some little time now for the nomination, while the senatorial perennial "Billy" Mason has just proclaimed his candidacy.

The democratic candidates are like the unimportant articles at a farm sale, "too numerous to mention." The leader in the race so far seems to be Roger Sullivan whose chief campaign argument is the promise to give one thousand dollars to any charitable institution, that the person who can find anything derogatory in his career may name. It has been suggested that if Roger really is sincere he can offer one hundred thousand dollars to the MAN who discovers his derogatory acts instead of one thousand to some CHARITY and then there will be plenty who will undertake the task with more than reasonable certainty of getting the money.

There are numerous other candidates, some of whom are supposed to be stalking horses for Sullivan while others are putting up more or less of a fight with little hope of success.

Representative L. W. Springer will probably be Sullivan's most formidable opponent. He has announced that as soon as he can leave his congressional duties he will take the stump. It is claimed by his friends that he has the support of Governor Dunne, Senator Lewis, Mayor Harrison and Secretary of State Bran who has since several attacks upon Sullivan and Williamson.

Raymond Robbins will be the progressive candidate. Who the nominee of the progressive party will be, will be settled in September at the very early. From then on the late for the toga promises to be a royal one.

In the state senatorial and congressional districts, the Progressives have through the money wrench into the machinery by announcing that they will have candidates in the field for every office. Representative John C. McKenzie, who will probably have no opposition in the republican primary, will have as his Progressive opponent Isaac Evans of our neighboring city of Milledgeville.

Several candidates for county offices are seeing things. The Progressives have decided to put a ticket in the field which it is supposed will receive support largely from those who were formerly affiliated with the republican party.

Other sections of this county are wondering why the county offices always go to Oregon. Some of them seem to feel that if the county offices are good things they should be passed around, that other sections of the county should be recognized; while if they are not the good things they are supposed to be, but are really sacrifices, they feel that the patriots of Oregon should not be compelled to make all the sacrifices. The indications are now that there will be candidates from some of the cities that have heretofore been unrecognized. We understand that County Clerk Adams wishes to succeed himself, while Sheriff Delaney wants to be county treasurer, and his deputy, Mackey, wants to annex the sheriff's office.

TRAMPS TRY TO ENTER CHURCH

Two tramps, who it is believed were searching for a place to sleep, attempted to break into St. Patrick's Catholic church at about 9 o'clock this morning. They were seen, however, and the police were notified. Officers Duffy and Hamilton drove them out of town.

WED THIS MORN.

This morning in the court of Justice Hill of this city Miss Anna Onken and Roy Essex of Normandy were united in marriage.

WORKMAN INJURED.

While at work yesterday wiring the McBride home in North Dixon, Warren B. Harris, an electrician in the employ of H. L. Dollahan, fell and seriously injured his knee.

LOSES VALUABLE HORSE

Farmer McKune of Amboy recently lost a valuable horse. Oscar by name, six years old and weighed 2110 pounds. The horse was valued at $2,000. Mr. McKune has the sympathy of all his friends in the community. Our correspondent failed to give the cause of his death, so it is presumed that Oscar "just died."

Dramatic Notes

FAMILY THEATRE.

The show at the Family commencing this evening is well up to the high standard of entertainment seen at this popular playhouse. The Lyric quartet is a harmony singing organization that is hard to beat. The young men are of classy appearance, are the possessors of splendid singing voices and their harmony and solo renditions are superb. Their selections include the new popular numbers and are offered in a manner that stamps the quartet a first rate vaudeville offering. The program also includes the Great Harrahs, introducing Mlle. Harrah, one of the dearest and most graceful roller skaters on the American stage, together with her efficient partner, Roy Harrah, a champion in this line. The latest Hosiery waltzes and Tango steps are presented while on skates and the entire offering is a splendid attraction which has been seen only in the high priced vaudeville theatres throughout the country but through special effort on the part of Manager Plein they have been secured for this brief engagement. Pictures tonight are: Broncho Billy; The Second Wife; Mr. Bunnyhug Buys a Hat for His Bride, featuring John Bunny and Flora Finch.

PRINCESS THEATRE

Tonight the Princess will show the sixteenth series of "Our Mutual Girl," in which she meets two famous newspaper men, Cartoonist Briggs of the New York Tribune and Franklin Adams, the famous colyum conductor. Cartoonist Briggs is a Dixon young man who has made a name for himself with the largest newspaper in the world, and his friends will, no doubt, be glad to see him. There is also a two reel feature on the program entitled, "Was She Right in Forgiving Him." A Thantousser drama with Maude Fealy in the leading role and will no doubt be as big a success as her other roles such as "Moths," "Legend of Provence" and others. Harry Benham and Helen Badgley are also in the cast.

Pianos Are Easy To Buy--

YOU have often wondered why so many of your friends had Pianos. Probably not one in twenty paid for his instrument when it was selected. So you, by paying a little now, a little next month and the next will find your piano soon settled for. And all the time you and the children are having the use of it.

That is the way most homes are bought, and that is the very way—the easy way—these Piano homes are made attractive for young people.

THEO. J. MILLER & SONS

Cor. Galena Ave. and 2nd St.

The Fourth
It was on July 4th 1776 that our freedom was really born; from that day on it was a long bitter fight, but right won out.

As in the case of anything worth while, the progress was slow. It's been that way in the manufacture of ready-to-wear clothing. The only thing that the pioneers had to begin with was the ideal—methods were crude, fabrics untried. In the earlier days of ready-made manufacture, the clothing was anything but a perfect production, as we can readily understand. The imperfections of those days gave rise to some enemies and critics of ready-made-clothing. Unfortunately for them, as well as for ourselves, a few still retain the idea that any ready made article is not good enough for them. The only way a man can retain that opinion is not to allow himself to know ready-made-clothing as it is made to-day.

In the last decade men have been gaining a new freedom in this matter. They no longer have to suffer the excessive made-to-measure charges, nor the time-wasting, delay and uncertainty.

You men can get just what you want when you want it in ready clothes.

HART SCHAFFNER & MARX

have been a big factor in this victory. Men everywhere have come to know that no matter what their size or what their taste, they can get something they'll like in these good clothes at a very moderate charge and at a moment's notice.

If you are one of those who have kept in touch with this progress, you know how you've profited by it. If you're skeptical we want an opportunity to show you these

GRAY HAIR BECOMES DARK, THICK, GLOSSY

Look years younger! Try Grandma's recipe of Sage and Sulphur and nobody will know.

Almost everyone knows that Sage Tea and Sulphur, properly compounded, brings back the natural color and lustre to the hair when faded, streaked or gray; also ends dandruff, itching scalp and stops falling hair. Years ago the only way to get this mixture was to make it at home, which is messy and troublesome.

Nowadays we simply ask at any drug store for "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy." You will get a large bottle for about 50 cents. Everybody uses this old, famous recipe, because no one can possibly tell that you darkened your hair, as it does it so naturally and evenly. You dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning the gray hair disappears, and after another application or two, your hair becomes beautifully dark, thick and glossy and you look years younger.

JUDGE FOR YOURSELF

Which is Better—Try an Experiment or Profit by a Dixon Citizen's Experience Something new is an experiment. Must be proved to be as represented.

The statement of a manufacturer is not convincing proof of merit. But the endorsement of friends is. Now supposing you had bad luck. Now supposing you had a bad back.

A lame, weak, or aching one. Would you experiment with it? You will read so many so-called cures.

Endorsed by strangers from far away places. It's different when the endorsement comes from home.

Easy to prove local testimony. Read this Dixon case:

J. B. Clark, 722 Highland Ave., Dixon, says: "I had kidney complaint and backache and the doctors seemed unable to do anything for me. Finally I read of Doan's Kidney Pills, and got a supply at Leake Bros.' Drug store. They cured me and I haven't had any serious trouble since. I consider Doan's Kidney Pills worthy of the highest praise and I gladly confirm the endorsement I gave them some years ago."

Mr. Clark is only one of many Dixon people who have gratefully endorsed Doan's Kidney Pills. If your back aches—if your kidneys bother you, don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—ask distinctly for Doan's Kidney Pills, the same that Mr. Clark had—the remedy backed by home testimony. 50c all stores. NOURSE ADMITS BEING LOTHARIO

Alleged Bigamist Courts Girl While He Is Married.

PRODUCES BILL FOR DIVORCE

Certified Copy of Document From Cleveland, Ohio, Is Produced—He Testifies He Was Released From First Wife in North Dakota—All Wives Present.

Chicago, July 2.—William K. Nourse, thirty-one years old, on trial before a jury in Judge Brentano's court on two charges of bigamy, took the witness stand in his own behalf. He testified to having gone to Cleveland, O., where he said he filed a bill for divorce against his second wife, Mrs. Grace Joiner Nourse, whom he married in Milwaukee, Wis., Sept. 20, 1909. Later he admitted that he had lived in Detroit, Mich., part of that time. He also admitted that there was one child born by the first marriage.

Nourse is charged with having married Mamie Plumridge May 28, 1903, in St. Louis and later marrying Grace Joiner of Milwaukee. The third wife, Mrs. Bessie Springer Nourse, to whom he was married Christmas eve, 1913, sat close by him and whispered words of encouragement to him, prior to his taking the stand.

The other wives also were present in court.

Nourse also testified that he obtained a divorce from his first wife Feb. 28, 1908, at Devil's Lake, N. D. He said he had made his residence in North Dakota from April, 1905, to the latter part of September, 1907, thus establishing his residence before filing his suit.

Courted Another When Married.
"Did you ever take your wife to North Dakota with you?" he was asked. "No, sir."

"Did she ever live there?" "No, sir."

"Is it not a fact that you met Mr. Springer, the father of your third wife, at that time?" "Yes, sir."

"Isn't it a fact that while you were calling on his daughter you were a married man and had asked him for his daughter's hand in marriage?" "Yes, sir."

"How long did you pay attention to Mr. Springer's daughter while you were married?" "Eighteen months."

DEADLOCK ON MILEAGE GRAB

Senate Wants Old 20 Cents Per Mile Extortion to Stand.

Washington, July 2.—The two houses of congress are deadlocked on the provision in the legislative bill allowing mileage expenses for senators and representatives. The house wants to fix the mileage allowance at 5 cents instead of 20 cents a mile as at present. The senate insists that the old rate of 20 cents a mile shall stand. For 89 years or more congress has been paying members 20 cents a mile and senators abhor any change that means a reduction in their perquisites.

Three times this week the house voted to stand by its amendment for the 5-cent mileage allowance and on every occasion it has spurned the senate proffer.

Chihuahua, Mex., July 2.—Answering a report in El Paso that General Felipe Angeles had been executed at Torreon, Villa denies the execution has taken place. "DIXON"

THE LIGHT RUNNING, HEAVY DUTY LAWN MOWER.
Guaranteed Equal to the Best Made.

Made in Dixon. Boost! It is Dixon. Every lawn in Dixon should have a mower on it. Your dealer should have them. If he has not got them call us and we will supply you.

We wish to draw your attention to a few of the improvements in the Dixon Lawn Mower over all other makes.

First, to the floating bed knife bar which is swiveled on the rod that ties the back end of the mower securely together, and, with the other tie rod at the front makes the most rigid frame to be found in lawn mowers.

You will notice at each back corner of the bed knife a compression spring. These press the cutting edge of the bed knife up against the reel, or revolving knife, always adjusting itself.

We make the Dixon with a thrust ball bearing which is the same as is used in automobiles, making it the best.

The knives throughout are crucible steel. The lower bed knife is crucible hip steel.

The Dixon Mower will cut heavy grass without raising the handle and without lifting up behind and choking.

SENATE TO STAY TILL SEPTEMBER

Democratic Caucus Votes to "Dispose of" Trust Bills.

QUORUM AT ALL TIMES URGED

Senator Kern Also Notifies Colleagues That Night Sessions Will Be Held—No Effort Made to Commit Party on Any of Three Bills Named—Resolution Causes Uproar.

Washington, July 2.—All hope for an adjournment of congress before early fall disappeared when a caucus of Democratic senators voted to remain in Washington until the pending trust bills are "disposed of."

In connection with this action an effort was made by the administration to obtain a caucus pledge to "pass" the pending anti-trust bills but it failed. In fact, the attitude of the senators was such as to indicate clearly to President Wilson that his program has a stormy time ahead.

The original resolution was submitted to the caucus after a conference with President Wilson and after it had been approved by the steering committee of the senate. It provided that the session of congress should go on until the bills were passed.

The resolution was presented by Senator Stone and immediately there was such a general outcry against the language of the resolution that it was modified so as not to bind any senator to vote for the "passage" of any three trust bills.

As passed finally the resolution read:

"Resolved, That this conference of Democratic senators, after due consideration, hereby declares that the present session of congress should not adjourn until at least the following bills, now pending in the senate are disposed of:

Three Bills Must Be Disposed Of. Then follows a list of three trust bills by their number, the Clayton, Railroad Securities and Federal Trade Commission bills.

After the adoption of the modified resolution the caucus passed the following resolution, interpreting the resolution:

"The resolution heretofore adopted is intended merely as an expression of the purpose of the majority of the party in reference to adjournment."

This resolution was bitterly opposed by the president's friends and the promoters of the trust program. The vote on it was 17 to 16.

Chairman Kern of the caucus was directed to move for night sessions next week to dispose of bills on the calendar and other important business. Quorum Resolution Causes Uproar. Senator Stone raised an uproar by proposing a resolution declaring that it was the duty of senators to remain in the senate while the trust legislative program was under way and that their absence at this time, especially of the Democrats, was little short of reprehensible.

This aroused such opposition that it was finally withdrawn but Senator Lewis was asked to keep a quorum present at all times.

FIGHTING IS RESUMED AT AGUS CALIENTES

Barron with 10,000 Men Returns to Attack.

Chihuahua, Mex., July 2.—That General Medina Barron, Huerta command, at Zacatecas and Agus Calientes in the recent fighting, has rallied his men and returned to the fight at the latter city, is the news brought here.

The message came from Villa to his chief fiscal agent, Lazaro de La Garza, and stated that Barron is reported to have secured 10,000 men with whom he has returned to the fight at Agus Calientes. Barron was reported to have lost almost his entire command at Zacatecas. He fled to Agus Calientes. The rebels took the city without more than skirmishing.

Barron is said now to have halted his men in their retreat and returned to the fight.

MOVIE PEOPLE LOSE LIVES

Actress and Operator Are Drowned Staging River Scene.

Canon City, Colo., July 2.—Miss Grace McHugh, leading lady of the Colorado Motion Picture company, and Owen Carter, a camera operator, both of Denver, were drowned here during a scene in one of the company's plays. Miss McHugh, mounted, was fording the Arkansas river when the animal threw her. Carter swam with her to a sand bank. Both were apparently safe when suddenly, without warning, both sank. It is believed they were caught in quick sand. Neither body was recovered.
